BOZEMAN LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS
PRESENTING POLITICAL DISCUSSIONS
UNDER $1,200 GRANT FROM MCH

MISSOULA--

The Bozeman League of Women Voters is presenting a series of public lectures Thursdays on the theme "Montana's Political History" under a $1,200 grant from the Montana Committee for the Humanities (MCH).

The lectures, which are open to the public without charge, are at 7:30 p.m. each Thursday through March 28 in the Darigold Building, 1001 N. 7th Ave., Bozeman.

Bruce R. Sievers, MCH director, who has offices at the University of Montana in Missoula, said the public lectures and discussions are on political themes in Montana history, ranging from territorial politics to the 1972 State Constitution.

Dr. Richard B. Roeder, professor of history at Montana State University, Bozeman, and Dr. Michael P. Malone, associate professor of history at MSU, are the speakers during the series.
